About the Department of Public Safety

The Rhode Island School of Design consists of more than 40 buildings in + around Providence's Downtown + East Side neighborhoods. Public Safety conducts security patrols, utilizing distinctively marked cruisers + uniformed officers, along with walking + bike patrols of campus facilities + on contiguous roadways. Services also include: Emergency Medical Services, parking management, crime prevention programs, + safety education.

Should a member of the RISD community observe or suspect criminal or suspicious activity, we ask that this information be promptly reported to the Department of Public Safety Office, located at 30 Waterman Street. The Public Safety Quad Station at 30 Waterman Street serves as the dispatch center for the Department of Public Safety. Public Safety's phone number for routine calls is 454-6376, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Our officers can accept reports in person, or by telephone.

Public Safety's emergency number is 454-6666, or x6666 from any campus telephone.

Emergency Phones (Code Blue)

The Department of Public Safety utilizes the Code Blue telephone communication system on campus. Code Blue is an electronic interactive voice communications + lighting system, which will provide quick + reliable incident response to emergency situations. The highly visible Code Blue units have been prominently deployed across the campus. Any member of the RISD community can use them to request the services of our department, report suspicious activity or people, or crimes in progress. Prompt reporting is the first step in controlling unauthorized activity.
